Key Verse	1:5	2:1	3:5

1. Qualified _____ [1]

This is why I left you in Crete, so that you might put what remained into order, and appoint elders in every town as I directed you. TITUS 1:5 ESV

Shepherding God's people well starts with the leader's

_____.

"The pastor ought to have two voices; one for gathering the sheep and another for driving away wolves." JOHN CALVIN

To the pure, all things are pure, but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their minds and their consciences are defiled. They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work. TITUS 1:15-16 ESV

2. Sound _____ [2]

But as for you, teach what accords with sound doctrine. TITUS 2:1 ESV

“Sound” = _____

A healthy church results from a steady diet of _____ _____ from its pastors.

3. Good _____ [3]

For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, led astray, slaves to various passions and pleasures, passing our days in malice and envy, hated by others and hating one another. But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God may be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for people. TITUS 3:3-8 ESV

But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, dissensions, and quarrels about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless. As for a person who stirs up division, after warning him once and then twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned. TITUS 3:9-11 ESV
